

Wawanesa
Earning Your Trust Since 1896

Choose your Payment Method

A Installments by Telephone/ Internet Banking

- Using the installment by telephone/Internet banking payment method, you can send the payment to us on the due date, save on postage and bank fees and avoid potential NSF charges.
- Contact your financial institution and select WAWANESA INSURANCE from their list of vendors.
- Your “account number” is the policy number as shown on your Billing Stub.
- Enter the amount to be paid based on the payment plan you have selected.
- Each policy must be set up as a separate account with your financial institution.

Premium payments received by telephone or Internet do not constitute a waiver of our rights with respect to reinstatement.

B The mac Plan (monthly automatic chequing)

- The mac Plan is our pre-authorized withdrawal plan.
- You can authorize Wawanesa Insurance to withdraw your monthly premium from your chequing or savings account.
- For information on enrolling in the mac Plan upon renewal, please contact your Insurance Broker.

C Installments by Cheque

- Return your signed cheque, for the amount due, and your Billing Stub in the self-addressed envelope provided.

NSF fees will be charged for insufficient funds.

www.wawanesa.com

